Data Protection: GLUG is a non-profit organisation. We hold personal data on computer only for the purposes of maintaining membership records, and administering activities for individuals who are members of the club. As such we are exempt from notification under the Data Protection Act.

Privacy: GLUG takes its members' privacy seriously. Your details are only available to club committee members, and are never given to 3rd Parties without your consent. Note that if you publish an item on the club website, your display name will be visible to the general public. By default this is your full name, but can be changed within your online profile page.

Website Gallery: The GLUG website contains a photo gallery, which all members may contribute to. It is therefore impossible to guarantee that your picture will never appear on the website. However, you may request that specific photos be removed, for privacy reasons, by contacting the GLUG webmaster at webmaster@glug.co.uk.
